	Zuffa's Description: Documents or portions thereof describing or providing highly confidential and trade secret information on Zuffa's contractual clauses and the trade secret internal policies relating to those contractual clauses. Disclosure of this trade secret information would be very likely to cause significant competitive harm to Zuffa.
Document	Description	Argument Against
	270:8-272:11 relates to an email exchange from 2013 in which Zuffa refused to release a 38-year old fighter from his contract even though Zuffa had no intention of scheduling him in another fight.	1) Does not contain commercially sensitive information. Zuffa has not shown how they could be harmed by disclosure. 2) The information referenced is too old to hold any competitive value.
Ex. 13, Hendrick Depo, 362:1-385:23	Testimony relates to whether, in 2007, 2009, and to a lesser extent 2011, Zuffa believed that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) it had the majority of top fighters signed to exclusive contracts; (b) having the top fighters under [REDACTED]; (c) [REDACTED]; (d) the contracts were [REDACTED]; (e) Zuffa could [REDACTED]; (f) Zuffa could [REDACTED]; (g) Zuffa's [REDACTED]; [REDACTED]; and, (h) any marquee fighters defected from Zuffa. 	1) Does not contain commercially sensitive information. Zuffa has not shown how they could be harmed by disclosure. 2) The information referenced in this testimony is too old to hold any competitive value. 3) These statements are directly relevant to Plaintiffs' claims. The interest of the named Plaintiffs, the Class members, the public, and the press in disclosure far outweighs any purported interest in confidentiality held by Zuffa. 4) Zuffa repeatedly objected to these questions on the basis that they were outside the scope of the deposition, which was a 30(b)(6) regarding Zuffa's fighter contracts. Now Zuffa claims the same testimony contains "trade secret information on Zuffa's contractual clauses and the trade secret internal policies relating to those contractual clauses."
Ex. 14, Epstein Depo, 22:19-23:2, 32:3-15	Testimony that Zuffa [REDACTED]	1) Not commercially sensitive information. Zuffa has failed to show how it might suffer competitive harm from its disclosure. 2) Public knowledge.

This is not grounds for sealing, and indeed is an attempt to use the Federal Rules for improper purposes. 3) Zuffa's contract clauses, including the Champion's Clause, are public knowledge. 4) Mr. Fitch did not designate his compensation information from other MMA promoters confidential. His 2013 compensation information from Zuffa is public knowledge as it was published by the Nevada Athletic Commission, and in any event is too old to hold any competitive value.

	Zuffa's Description: Documents or portions thereof describing or providing highly confidential and trade secret information on Zuffa's contractual clauses and the trade secret internal policies relating to those contractual clauses. Disclosure of this trade secret information would be very likely to cause significant competitive harm to Zuffa.
Document	Description	Argument Against
	121:1-10 refers to the length of Mr. Fitch's old contract when he re-negotiated, and includes his statement, '████████ without making a dime. That would retire a fighter. We don't make that much money. You don't fight, you don't work for 18 months, [you're not going to survive, you're not going to live. You don't get a choice.]' (portion in brackets unredacted).	1) Does not contain commercially sensitive information. Zuffa has not shown how they could be harmed by disclosure. 2) The information referenced is too old to hold any competitive value.
	122:15-18, 122:22-25, 123:24-25, 124:14-16 relate to the length of Mr. Fitch's 2008 contract.	1) Does not contain commercially sensitive information. Zuffa has not shown how they could be harmed by disclosure. 2) The information referenced is too old to hold any competitive value.
	218:15-22, 219:8-25 quote the ██████████ from Mr. Fitch's 2008 contract.	1) Not commercially sensitive information. Zuffa has failed to show how it might suffer competitive harm from its disclosure. 2) Public knowledge. 3) Information is too old to hold competitive value.
	224:6-8 states that Mr. Fitch's 2008 contract was ██████████.	1) Not commercially sensitive information. Zuffa has failed to show how it might suffer competitive harm from its disclosure. 2) Public knowledge. 3) Information is too old to hold competitive value.
	226:3-4, 226:7-12, 226:15-20, 227:15 relate to Mr. Fitch's UFC compensation from 2013 and his 2016 compensation from another promoter.	1) Zuffa has failed to narrow its request to seal by limiting redactions to personal information and compensation.
Ex. 20, Kingsbury Depo, 90:1-93:14, 100:2-101:25	90:1-93:14 refer to extensions to Mr. Kingsbury's 2008 UFC contract.	1) Information from 2008-2010 is too old to hold any competitive value. 2) Mr. Kingsbury has not designated this information confidential.
	100:2-101:25 refer to another extension of the 2008 contract and Mr. Kingsbury's purse amounts under that contract.	1) Information from 2008-2010 is too old to hold any competitive value. 2) Mr. Kingsbury has not designated this information confidential.

Zuffa's Description: Documents or portions thereof describing or providing highly confidential and trade secret information on Zuffa's contractual clauses and the trade secret internal policies relating to those contractual clauses. See Opp, p. 15, n.17. 2) Zuffa has not shown how it will be harmed by disclosure of this information. 3) Zuffa's acquisition of Invicta fighters is public knowledge. 4) Fighter compensation information from 2013 and 2015 is public knowledge and is too old to hold any competitive value. Zuffa has not shown how it will be harmed by release of this information.
	129:23-130:24 testimony confirms that [REDACTED].	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Does not contain commercially sensitive information. Zuffa has not shown how they could be harmed by disclosure. 2) The information referenced is too old to hold any competitive value.

	215:3-216:23, 217:7-9, 217:20-25 relate to a fighter negotiation in 2015, including a compensation offer, Shelby states that Zuffa's contract terms must be uniform to avoid logistical problems.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Zuffa has failed to narrow its request to seal by limiting redactions to personal information and compensation.

It is public knowledge that Titan bouts are available on FightPass, and the fact that Zuffa seeks to seal this testimony when it contains no usable information shows that Zuffa has not carefully screened its redactions. This is particularly so because Zuffa's justification for sealing, such as it is, is that the testimony relates to Zuffa's fighter contracts. Zuffa's licensing agreement with Titan is not a fighter contract.

Zuffa's Description: Documents or portions thereof describing or providing highly confidential and trade secret information on Zuffa's contractual clauses and the trade secret internal policies relating to those contractual clauses. Disclosure of this trade secret information would be very likely to cause significant competitive harm to Zuffa.

Zuffa has not shown how it will be harmed by disclosure.
Ex. 28, Epstein Depo, 207:3-211:18, 216:14-217:2	207:3-211:18 relates to a negotiation with a fighter in 2014, with specific reference to [REDACTED]. 216:14-217:2 relates to the existence of an offer from a fighter manager, but it does not contain specific details about that offer.	1) Zuffa's contractual terms are public knowledge. 2) This negotiation is from 2014, and is too old to hold any competitive value. 3) The outcome of the negotiation is public knowledge, so there is no competitive justification for sealing it. 4) This testimony confirms Plaintiffs' claim that Zuffa exploited its monopsony power in negotiations with fighters. Accordingly, the interest of the named Plaintiffs, Class members, the public and the press in disclosure outweighs Zuffa's interest in sealing the document.
Ex. 29, Silva Depo, 186:4-12, 270:12-271:17, 275:9-276:18, 277:9-15, 382:16-385:21, 392:16-393:7, 410:15-21, 412:7-413:22, 412:6-17, 426:6-12, 456:6-9	186:4-12 relates to the [REDACTED] 270:12-271:17 relates to [REDACTED], and using prior fight footage to promote upcoming fights. 275:9-276:18 relates to [REDACTED] in Zuffa contracts. 277:9-15 relates to "standard contract terms." 382:16-385:21 relates to Zuffa's practice of re-negotiating contracts before the last fight on the contract. 392:16-393:7 relates to Zuffa's contracts [REDACTED]. 410:15-21, 412:7-413:22, 412:6-17, 426:6-12-410 relate to the [REDACTED].	1) Zuffa's contractual terms are public knowledge. 1) Zuffa's contractual terms are public knowledge. 1) Zuffa's contractual terms are public knowledge. 1) Zuffa's contractual terms are public knowledge. 1) Not commercially sensitive information. Expert Reports

Zuffa asks the Court to seal nine expert reports, including hundreds of redactions spread over many hundreds of pages. The burden is on Zuffa to justify each of its redactions with specific findings of fact. Zuffa has failed to do so. Its proposed redactions are unjustified.

For example, Zuffa asks the Court to seal the conclusions of Plaintiffs' expert Dr. Hal Singer, including, [REDACTED]

Expert Report of Hal J. Singer, Ph.D., Aug. 31, 2017, ¶ 5. This statement contains no commercially sensitive information, and Zuffa has not shown how it would be harmed by its disclosure. Moreover, Dr. Singer's points and conclusions, are of great significance to the named Plaintiffs, the Class members, the public, and the press in this litigation. The presumed right of access is particularly strong in an antitrust class action such as this, affecting the rights of a large number of fighters, and clearly outweighs any purported interest in confidentiality put forth by Zuffa.

In another example, Zuffa asks the Court to seal a portion of the Expert Report of Andrew Zimbalist in Cung Le, et al. v. Zuffa, LLC, Aug. 31, 2017, ¶ 42 n.77, that quotes from an article that was published on MMAJunkie.com:

[REDACTED].

Dr. Zimbalist cites to a document produced by Zuffa, but that document quotes from an article that is still available online. See, Rayhill Decl., Exh. 11, John Morgan, "UFC president Dana White says EA Sports responsible for current MMA video game war," July 12, 2009, mmajunkie.com, available for download at, <https://mmajunkie.com/2009/07/ufc-president-dana-white-says-ea-sports-responsible-for-current-mma-video-game-war>. This article is in the public domain, and is clearly not confidential. Zuffa can provide no basis for sealing Dr. Zimbalist's quoting from it.

As these examples show, Zuffa has asked the Court to seal portions of Plaintiffs' expert reports that should not be sealed. Zuffa has failed to provide compelling reasons supported by specific factual findings to seal the reports. Zuffa's Motion to Seal should be denied.

Zuffa filed 25 newly unredacted documents with their Motion to Seal. Plaintiffs welcome this changes. However, Zuffa has still failed to provide compelling reasons for the remaining redactions in five of these documents, listed below. These documents should not be redacted.
